

The Danish Committee for Health Education

...is a private not-for-profit organisation, established in 1964.

Purpose: "...to close gaps in Health Education, identified by e.g. members of the Committee, the general public or the National Board of Health."

The Committee consists of 15 organisations (members)

20 employees

Present tasks and fundings

- Publications from 'cradle to grave' – development and distribution
- National office for dissemination of CDSMP, CPSMP + related programs
- Youth-to-youth Health education
- National research projects on patient-to-patient interventions
- Development of Disease-specific patient education programs
- Development of public health interventions
- Advisor for municipalities and regions concerning patient education

Fundings:

- Private funds
- Subscription and licence agreements
- Sale of publications

Denmark is a Country with...

5.5 million Citizens

33,4 % have one or more long-term condition(s)*.

Health Care System

5 regions

98 municipalities

General Practitioners

Tax-based Health Care System

Den nationale sundhedsprofil 2010. Sundhedsstyrelsen 2011.*

Health literacy and Health education

Definition:

3 levels of Health literacy (Nutbeam)

National goal : +3 years for all danes...

Status:

National, regional and local health profiles→

- Interventions on all levels
- Reflections on health communication, Health education
- A general understanding that interventions on all levels are beneficial
- Patient education and empowerment is considered a major supplement to treatment and care

In the Committee

Strategies

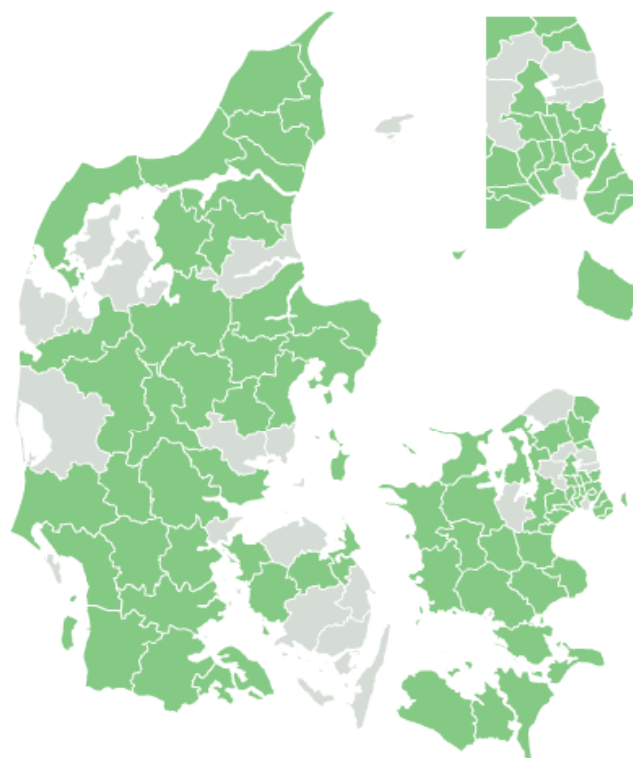

Publications

Education

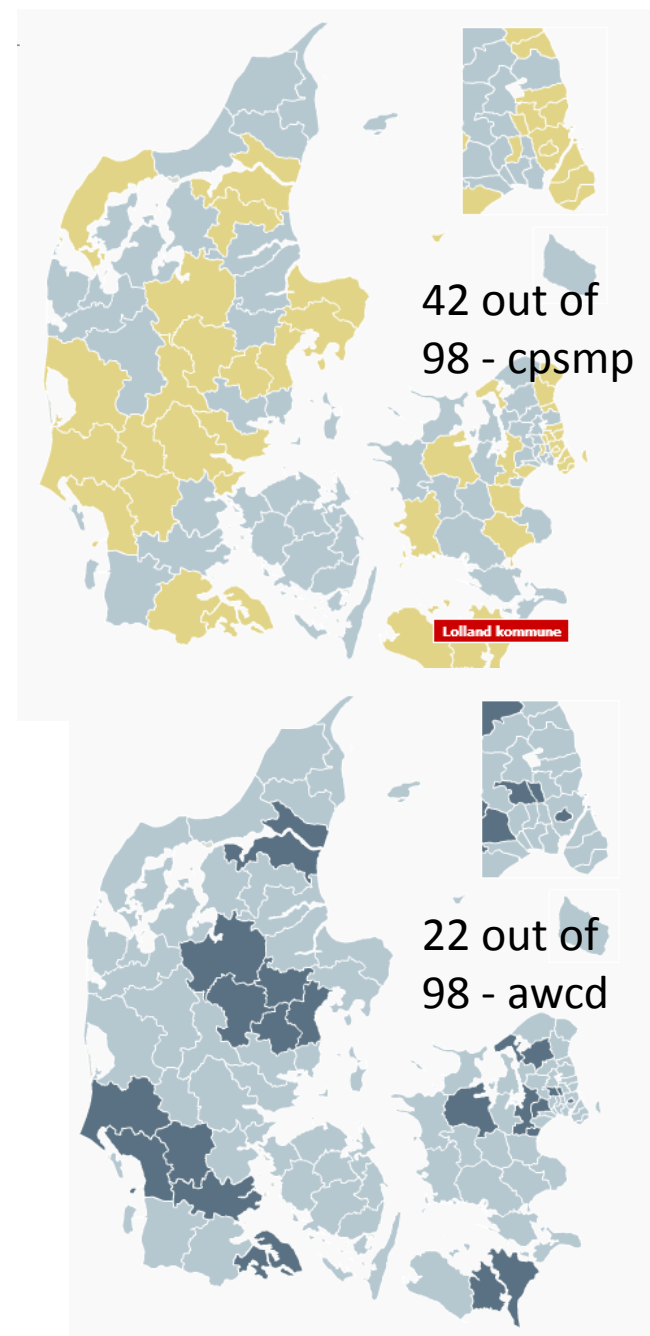

Making red threats within the system

CDSMP

70 of 98 are offering the workshop - cdsmp

Thank you for the attention

Contacts:

The Danish Committee for Health Education
Classensgade 71, 5th
DK-2100 Copenhagen O
Denmark